Overview

The property is situated on the upper foothills of Kilduff Mountain, 866 ft. (264 m.) above sea level, commanding a panoramic view of the surrounding forests and the valley below, a truly idyllic hideaway location, designed to combine the style and charm of country living. This is a 2 bed, south facing cottage on 1.06 acre, 15 mins from the M7 motorway which connects Dublin and Limerick and 15 mins also from mainline rail services connecting Dublin with Limerick, Cork and Kerry. The property was completely renovated in 2008, with all internal and external walls being lime rendered in keeping with the period when the cottage was built. It is surrounded by mature trees and shrubbery, providing shelter and privacy. There is a separate entrance gate leading into a paddock. A mountain stream flows through the grounds which provide a haven for wildlife. Drinking water is supplied by a well 320 ft below ground, providing a clean and natural source of water. The site has potential, (subject to planning permission) for further extension.
