Overview

A rare home available on Playa Venao, a surfer's paradise and gorgeous beach front position in Panama on the Azuero Peninsula. Currently used as a private home by the original owners with two rental cabanas on the beach, there is room to build 3 more for increased cash flow. The home was designed to be easily converted as an office and social area for a full rental business, so options galore with this property! Playa Venao is a Billabong surfing competition beach and one of the prettiest and largest bays in all of Panama. Lined with ranchitos and new developments of hotels and homes. The primary home has 3 en-suite bedrooms and a third floor office and den (with clever storage for a water tank behind bookshelves), and an enormous covered patio, pool with fountain and beautifully landscaped grounds with flowering vines. Also included: Boche ball court 2 actively rented cabanas with room for three more Caretakers cottage and attached laundry/storage area Covered parking Electronic entry and fully fenced
